SAC, SHANKLIN

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, 11/22/63

DON MOORE of the Bureau called at 1:45 PM today to say they had problems in that some of the words on the material sent to them yesterday was not legible. He was advised that the original material from which the verifax copies made was sent by an Agent to Washington today and should be at the Bureau.

With regard to going into statements as to where OSWALD lived, they find a little conflict in his past residences. He resided at New Orleans, Ft. Worth, New York, and there is a statement about North Dakota. Bureau does not find him living in North Dakota, and requested that we get from his mother or his brother, his residences and schooling, for example, we lived in New Orleans until 1946 when we moved to Ft. Worth, then we moved, or they moved, or somebody moved to New York where he resided for two years, then he came back to where he lived up until his Marine Corps entrance. There is a period where he apparently went to New York for a brief time and one reference to living in North Dakota. This information was from a newspaper clipping.

Dallas Office is requested to have his mother or brother tell us where the family lived and especially him, up until his Marine Corps entrance. If we don't already have this information, then get it and phone it to the Bureau.
